

Riverside-Bradford Baseball League
Standard of Behavior

The following section is taken from the Little League Rules and is held as our standard of behavior;

4.06 - No manager, coach or player, shall at any time, whether from the bench or the playing field or elsewhere -

- (1) incite, or try to incite, by word or sign, a demonstration by spectators.
- (2) use language which will in any manner refer to or reflect upon opposing players, manager, coach, an umpire or spectators.
- (3) in the umpire's judgment any member of the offensive team makes any move calculated to cause the pitcher to commit a balk. (i.e. become distracted) First warn the player and/or manager. If continued, remove the player and/or manager from the game or bench. If such action causes a balk, it shall be nullified.
- (4) no fielder shall take a position in the batter's line of vision, with deliberate intent to distract the batter. The offender will be removed from the game.

4.07 - When a manager, coach or player is ejected from the game, they shall leave the field immediately and take no further part in that game. They may not sit in the stands and may not be recalled. A manager or coach ejected from a game must not be present at the game site for the remainder of that game. Any manager, coach or player ejected from a game is suspended for his or her team's next physically played game and may not be in attendance at the game site from which they are suspended.

4.08 - When the occupants of a player's bench show violent disapproval of an umpire's decision, the umpire shall first give warning that such disapproval shall cease, if such action continues -

Penalty - the umpire shall order the offender out of the game and away from the spectator's area. If the umpire is unable to detect the offender or offenders, the bench may be cleared of all players. The manager of the offending team shall have the privilege of recalling to the playing field only those players needed for substitution in the game.

Using these standards, anyone ejected from a game will miss the next game. You have the right to appeal within twenty-four hours and request from the commissioner a hearing from a committee appointed by the league president.

The committee will consist of the commissioner, a chair officer and another board member. No one on the committee will be affiliated with the team in question. Any investigation or statements by involved parties will be taken by the commissioner and documented. If you lose your appeal, the penalty is at the discretion of the committee.

In the event of a second offense, the person is suspended for the entire calendar year, including any postseason activities.
